MATHS

- Fractions – equivalent fractions
- Decimals – hundredths and making a whole
- Multiplication – divide by 10 and 100
- Statistics – interpret and draw charts and line graphs
- Continue to learn and apply their knowledge of times tables up to 12 x 12 to prepare for the summer term times table test

ENGLISH

Pupils will continue to use The Write Stuff scheme of work. This half term we will be completing the following units:

- Poetry – 'Still I Rise' by Maya Angelou – children will recreate a similar style of poem using adversity
- Diary entry – 'The Journal of Iliona' – children will recreate a diary entry about another Roman character at a banquet

SCIENCE

This half term's work is about respecting our environment. Pupils will:

- Identify where humans have had an impact on an environment
- Identify ways that humans can damage an environment
- Identify ways in which humans can protect and improve environments
- Present their ideas and evidence in appropriate ways
- Use simple scientific vocabulary to describe their ideas and observations
- Draw simple conclusions about what they see

ART AND D&T

Children will complete the following Art unit:
Working in Three Dimensions: The Art of Display

What Have the Romans Ever Done or Us?

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

- Continue to use the Real PE scheme of work looking at the unit 'Agility (Action and Response)'

SMSC

Pupils will look at the question:
What does dharma (duty) mean to many Hindus?

French

Pupils will study the Twinkl unit 'What's the time?'

- Say and write sentences to tell o'clock times
- Count in 5s to 30
- Understand and use the terms avant and après
- Answer questions about TV schedules

MUSIC

- Pupils will continue using the Charanga scheme of work, with a focus this half term on how music can make a statement – looking at the Beatles song 'Blackbird'
- They will continue with brass 'wider opportunities'

COMPUTING

This half term's unit of work focuses on the program Scratch.
Pupils will learn about:

- Questions and Answers
- Creating Short Quizzes
- Visual & Audio Effects
- Write a Program for Scoring

PSHE

This half term's Jigsaw unit of work is 'Relationships.'
Themes:
Jealousy, Love and loss, Memories of loved ones, Getting on and falling out, Girlfriends and boyfriends

HISTORY

The Romans

- Roman Chronology
- Compare buildings (Celtic and Roman)
- Compare climate
- Roman roads – map skills
- Did the Romans benefit Britain?

SPECIAL EVENT